What to expect

- Parking: Start from the Grimsby Lions Community Pool lot, entering at 1 Elm St at the south end of Coronation Park.
- Forty Mile Creek Side Trail: A short link between the park and the Main Trail through the wooded Forty Mile Creek valley, on forest paths.
- Beamers Falls corridor: The Gainsborough Valley Trail Association says the former Beamers Falls Side Trail corridor is now designated Main Trail, so blazes may be white rather than blue. Upper Beamer Falls is about 6 m high; the best view is from beside Ridge Road, which is busy, so stay off the roadway and keep Zappy close.
- Grimsby Point: Escarpment-top lookouts at Beamer Memorial Conservation Area, a well-known spring hawk watch site. The central observation deck closes from February 28 to May 15 for bird migration; the other lookouts stay open. Stay back from the cliff edges.
- Staircase closure: A July 2026 GVTA hike notes the Beamer staircase is closed and the official Bruce Trail reroute follows Mountain Street and Ridge Road West on road shoulders. Check brucetrail.org trail changes before you go, and keep Zappy close on any road stretch.
- Cautions: The scramble up the creek to Lower Beamer Falls is not an official trail and has loose, slippery rocks. Stay on the blazed route.
