Route map

What to expect

- Parking: On the east side of Pit Rd just before the bend. The Boundary Bluffs Side Trail is 100 m down the hill. Don't block the entrance to the field.
- Climbing Sydney Bay Bluff: A 2015 trip report describes the main trail climbing a forested talus slope near Boundary Bluffs, with a steel staircase up the final cliff. From the top, Hope Bay lies below.
- Lookouts: The route makes several short trips out to viewpoints. A paddling guide calls the Bruce Trail lookout at Sydney Bluff "spectacular". These are open cliff edges, so keep Zappy on a short leash.
- Boundary Bluffs and Hart's Tongue Side Trails: These two blue-blazed trails make up most of the day. We found no detailed descriptions of their footing.

- Distance: At 12.2 km with a big climb, this is a demanding day. Bring plenty of water.

Distances and junctions are computed from the Bruce Trail Conservancy's trail data (Bruce County GIS). Left/right is calculated from the trail geometry. Use it as a guide, follow the blazes, and check the Conservancy's trail-change notices before you go. Dogs must be leashed everywhere on the Bruce Trail. Trail descriptions draw on the Vanderplas family's Bruce Trail journal and GLSKA.
