What to expect

- Parking: The McCurdy Drive lot is small. Book online at lionsheadparking.ca (required mid-May to October 15, at least 24 hours ahead; $20 for 4 hours or $30 a day). No RVs or trailers, and do not park on Moore St. In summer the municipality suggests the Lion's Head Arena lot and free shuttle.
- Road walking: The main trail starts and ends on the road shoulder through Lion's Head village. Keep Zappy close.
- Main Bruce Trail from McCurdy Drive: This is the busiest stretch in the reserve, with lots of technical rock and stretches that run close to the cliff edge. Wear sturdy boots and keep Zappy on a short leash near the drop-offs.
- Warder, Ilse Hanel & Cemetery Road Side Trails: The Warder and Ilse Hanel Side Trails are blue-blazed and form part of the reserve's perimeter loop. No detailed terrain descriptions were found, but the reserve's back trails are described as wildflower-rich woodland with karst landforms.
- Facilities: There are no visitor facilities in the reserve beyond the washrooms near the McCurdy lot. Carry water.

Turn-by-turn

km	mi	Directions
0.0	0.0	Start at the parking: McCurdy Drive Municipal Parking Lot (off of Moore St.): Online booking is required -.... Head south-east on the white-blazed main Bruce Trail. The next 0.2 km follows a road shoulder; keep the dog close.

11.1	6.9	Back at the parking. Hike complete.

Distances and junctions are computed from the Bruce Trail Conservancy's trail data (Bruce County GIS). Left/right is calculated from the trail geometry. Use it as a guide, follow the blazes, and check the Conservancy's trail-change notices before you go. Dogs must be leashed everywhere on the Bruce Trail. Trail descriptions draw on Northern Bruce Peninsula, Fastest Known Time, 10Adventures and the Great Lakes Sea Kayaking Association.
