What to expect

- Parking: the Bruce Trail lot on the 7th Line just east of Airport Rd, built in 2002 for hikers. The Town of Mono lists room for about 15 cars. A short access trail (0.2 km, partly along the road) links it to the main Trail.
- Glen Haffy Side Trail: blue blazes; with the main Trail it makes a loop. It passes farm fences, a pine plantation planted to hold back sand dunes left after early logging, a wooden stile, and a small bridge over the Humber River under hemlocks. Then a steep climb onto a ridge with farmland views and mature hardwoods.
- Highway 9 crossing: the side trail's write-up warns that traffic here is fast. Cross carefully with the dog on a short leash.
- Spring: look for bloodroot, trillium, hepatica, trout lily and Dutchman's breeches in the woods.
- Winter: the club asks hikers to follow alternate-route signs near the 7th Line lot and stay off cross-country ski trails.
- Dogs: allowed on leash throughout.

Use it as a guide, follow the blazes, and check the Conservancy's trail-change notices before you go. Dogs must be leashed everywhere on the Bruce Trail. Trail descriptions draw on Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club pages (Glen Haffy story, Sideways Badge) and the Town of Mono hiking page.
