What to expect

- Parking: the lot on the north side of Mono 5 Sideroad, where the Trail crosses.
- Harmony Side Trail: a short link you'll pass several times. It was kept as a loop connector when the main Trail was rerouted through the Taoist Tai Chi Society property in the late 1980s.
- Darcy's Side Trail: the only side trail on the whole Bruce Trail named after a dog: Darcy, a Jack Russell terrier who ran in these woods for 19 years. The land is now a Bruce Trail Conservancy protected area called Tall Timbers. A fitting one for Zappy.
- Hockleycrest Side Trail: crosses the 'Moule Easement', land donated by Sally Cohen and Dave Moule. The short Hockleycrest Shortcut links it back to the main Trail.
- Hockley Hollow Side Trail: a short spur to an overnight rest area.
- Terrain: we didn't find detailed terrain notes for these trails. Expect woodland walking with the hills typical of the Hockley area.
- Dogs: allowed on leash. The club's Darcy's Side Trail story asks hikers to keep dogs leashed and pack out their waste.

Parking options

No other official Bruce Trail parking lies within about 1 km of this route. If you need to stop early, turn back the way you came; the GPS track records what you covered, and the website shows what is left.

Parking costs were checked in October 2026 from operator websites and Bruce Trail Conservancy data; prices and booking rules change, so check before you go.

Distances and junctions are computed from the Bruce Trail Conservancy's trail data (Bruce County GIS). Left/right is calculated from the trail geometry. Use it as a guide, follow the blazes, and check the Conservancy's trail-change notices before you go. Dogs must be leashed everywhere on the Bruce Trail. Trail descriptions draw on Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club pages (Darcy's Side Trail story, Sideways Badge).
