What to expect

- Parking: A parking area on the Niagara River Parkway, east of the John St intersection, giving access to the General Brock Side Trail. No fee or capacity details were found.
- General Brock Side Trail: An out-and-back walk on this blue-blazed side trail, about 6 km each way. We could not find a published description of its surface, terrain or features, so allow extra time and check the Bruce Trail Conservancy's current trail notes before you go.
- Along the Parkway: The Niagara Parkway also carries the paved Niagara River Recreation Trail, used by cyclists and joggers, and parts of it share roadways and driveways. Near the parking area, keep Zappy close and watch for bikes.
- Dogs: Leashed dogs are welcome on the Bruce Trail and its side trails.

Trail descriptions draw on Niagara Falls Tourism; details of the General Brock Side Trail itself were not found.
