Day 29 | 10.7 km (6.7 mi)

What to expect

- Parking: roadside on the east side of Creditview Rd, just north of Grange Sideroad. Trip reports note that parking at this trailhead is limited, so arrive early.
- Devil's Pulpit Side Trail: the hard part of the day: steep rock faces and stairs one hiking club calls 'treacherous', plus boulders to scramble over (about 150 m down and back up). Wear boots; poles help. Since 2023, Dominion Street construction has moved part of the main Trail onto this side trail, so you may see white blazes.
- Road walking: several stretches of the Devil's Pulpit and Trimble side trails follow road shoulders. Keep the dog close and on a short leash.
- Trimble Side Trail: named for founding members Roy and Eleanor Trimble. It runs beside the Credit River toward Belfountain, with a view of the curved Credit Valley Railway trestle. Stonecutter's Dam, an old masonry dam, is posted; stay off it.
- Crow's Nest Side Trail: a 1 km loop that starts on a boardwalk, then follows an old quarry road past test pits from the 1880s Crow's Nest Quarry, source of sandstone for the Ontario Legislature. A fence line runs above a steep drop to Forks of the Credit Rd; keep the dog away from the edge.
- Ring Kiln Side Trail: a short spur to the ruins of a Hoffman lime kiln built around 1896 that ran for only about three years. The collapsed chimney left a 6 m-deep hole, now covered by a steel grate; don't climb on the ruins.
- Dogs: allowed on leash. On the steep rock and stairs, a short leash makes it easier to keep your footing.

Distances and junctions are computed from the Bruce Trail Conservancy's trail data (Bruce County GIS). Left/right is calculated from the trail geometry. Use it as a guide, follow the blazes, and check the Conservancy's trail-change notices before you go. Dogs must be leashed everywhere on the Bruce Trail. Trail descriptions draw on Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club pages (Ring Kiln story, Sideways Badge), Hiking the GTA (Crow's Nest) and a Guelph Hiking Trail Club hike listing (Devil's Pulpit).
