Day 77 | 12.1 km (7.5 mi)

What to expect

- Parking: The McCurdy Drive lot is small. Book online at lionsheadparking.ca (required mid-May to October 15, at least 24 hours ahead; $20 for 4 hours or $30 a day). No RVs or trailers, and do not park on Moore St. In summer the municipality suggests the Lion's Head Arena lot and free shuttle.
- Road walking: The main trail starts and ends on the road shoulder through Lion's Head village. Keep Zappy close.
- Main Bruce Trail & lookouts: This is the popular Lion's Head lookout route: rocky, rugged ground, technical rock, and Georgian Bay views that get better as you go. The trail often runs very close to the cliff edge, so keep Zappy on a short leash. Expect crowds in summer.
- Giant's Cauldron & Lion's Head Pothole: Short spurs to glacial potholes, holes carved into the rock by glacial activity.
- McKay's Harbour Side Trail: A short spur toward McKay's Harbour, a cove with a backcountry campsite on the shore.
- Inland & Donna Baker Side Trails: Interior trails through woodland with wildflowers and karst landforms. No detailed terrain descriptions were found.
